

Quick Facts

.20 cents per day ($1.36 per week) enables a child, with challenging circumstances, such as, a family in crisis, a need for a caregiver when both parents need to work, a child with a disability, or a child who has social emotional issues to attend summer camp.

.31 cents per day ($2.15 per week) provides a day at a homeless shelter, where a comprehensive range of supportive services to address the causes of their homelessness is addressed and enable them to move towards economic self-sufficiency and stable housing.

.36 cents per day ($2.52 per week) provides emergency services to military personnel and their families and to individuals who have suffered a disaster and are in need of immediate relief services.

.63 cents per day ($4.41 per week) provides one-day counseling contact for 365 abused women and children due to domestic violence to help restore the victim's sense of dignity, power and control and to reclaim safety in her life.

.67 cents per day ($4.69 per week) provides one hour of counseling a month to vulnerable adults, "at risk" families, and disenfranchised teens.

.77 cents per day ($5.39 per week) provides mentoring services to a youth who is at-risk of academic or social failure or of engaging in harmful behavior.

.84 cents per day ($5.85 per week) provides three days of services for a female resident in drug/alcohol rehabilitation which includes comprehensive treatment, case management and services designed to empower and create options.